"You can have brilliant ideas, but if you can't get them across, your ideas won't get you anywhere" – Lee Iacocca

The globalization of business has created a worldwide demand for international communication skills. Foster the best talent from any background in their rise to the top and realize the full potential of your organization by sharpening your global language skills.

The fastest way to improve communication in a multicultural working environment is to increase the awareness of how the English language really works. With this clear distinction ALL employees become free to hear, speak and communicate in English with confidence and success.

- Employees understand directives and convey ideas effectively to their peers
- Critical milestones and deadlines are met
- There is no segregation due to language barriers

Favorite Topics Include:

Global English - addresses the global shift toward tolerance and inclusion as well as individual language strategies that directly increase corporate profits. Handouts include the word list and simplified grammar rules used by 80% of the global English population.

English is Stupid – provides fresh insights into the mechanics of conversation. Attendees leave with a new perspective, appreciation and understanding of the differences between written and spoken English.

Why Doncha Juspea Kinglish – experience this culture from another perspective. Discover the Alphabet, spelling and grammar have nothing to do with speaking English. Invisible consonants, assumptions and idioms are some of the pitfalls inherent in North American conversation.

Thompson Language Center customizes their presentations to entertain, educate and inspire your workplace.
